

Austin, TX

"There is a freedom you begin to feel the closer you get to Austin, Texas."

- Willie Nelson

Home to a vibrant music and arts scene, inspiring cuisine, and stunning outdoor settings, Austin is the "Live Music Capital of the World", and so much more.

In line with the Summit theme, we hope you'll take the opportunity to

Explore New Worlds

in Austin, Texas!

Check these major Austin landmarks off your bucket list:

- ☐ Texas State Capital
- ☐ Umlauf Sculpture Garden
- ☐ Zilker Park
- ☐ Lady Bird Lake
- ☐ Texas State History Museum
- ☐ 360 Bridge
- ☐ Mount Bonnell
- ☐ Blanton Museum of Art
- ☐ University of Texas
- ☐ Barton Creek
- ☐ Zilker Botanical Garden
- ☐ HOPE Outdoor Gallery

Get connected and explore

@do512

@365ThingsAustin
www.austintexas.org

Might we suggest...

"Want to do something different while visiting Texas? Drive just 2.5 miles south of the Sheraton and visit the Inner Space Caverns. A cool walk between stalactites and stalagmites, estimated to be 90–100 million years old. Walk is a little over a mile, on easy trails, and takes just over an hour.

- Charles "Tom" Castro, ITLP

"The Hope Outdoor Gallery is an outdoor 'paint park' (the only one of it's kind!) and is a perfect representation of Austin's creative community. It is my go-to spot to show visiting family and friends and the murals are completely different every time!"

- Rebecca Roth, ITDP

"Moonshine Grill at 5th and Red River has what I would call "upscale down home cooking" – southern dishes with a twist! Whatever their Soup of the Day is, get it. Oh, and by the way, the name of the restaurant also provides a hint at the type of liquid refreshment that is available! Enjoy."

- Kelli Neely, CIO People

"Mount Bonnell is one of the special hot spots in Austin, the hike up to the top of the mountain is so worth the panoramic view."

- Pamela Cortinas, CIO People

"My favorite spot to eat in Austin is Artessano, a Columbian food truck on east 6th street. If Columbian food is not for you, try one of the handful of other food trucks it shares a lot with – there's something to offer for all tastes! For nightlife, I like going to Rainey Street bar district and relaxing with friends at an outdoor table. Especially when it includes live music!

- Kay Harris, ITDP

"Chuy's is my absolute favorite Tex-Mex and is a MUST stop for travelers to Austin. Try the jalepeno ranch – with chips, salad, your dinner.. and look out for anything with hatch green chilis! Yum!"

- Kara Miller, ITLP

5/5/18 - 5/6/18

Pecan Street Spring Arts Festival

East Sixth Street

A free, family event, the Pecan Street Festival is the oldest and largest art festival in Central Texas. Musicians, food vendors, artists and crafts people turn Sixth Street - historically called Pecan Street - into a lively street fair where there is something for people of all ages.

www.pecanstreetfestival.org

5/6/18 (7:30 am - 10:00 am)

5th Annual Silicon Labs Sunshine Run

Auditorium Shores, 900 W Riverside Dr, Austin, TX 78704 The fifth annual Silicon Labs Sunshine Run will take place on Sunday, May 6 in the heart of downtown Austin on the certified course beginning at Vic Mathias Shores at Town Lake on 900 West Riverside Drive. Funds raised from the race will benefit Austin Sunshine Camps making a positive difference in the lives of Austin's low-income youth.

5/6/18 (7:00 pm)

Starlight Music Series - The Brew

The Oasis on Lake Travis, 6550 Comanche Trl, Austin, TX Sunday night is Salsa night at The Oasis with The Brew. Enjoy music by an accomplished band that is inspired by jazz and Latin artists

5/12/18

Finding Euphoria Fest

Carson Creek Ranch

Live music, camping, yoga and a variety of mindful workshops come together at this immersive four day festival. Musical styles bridge the gaps between hip-hop, electronic, ambient, tribal and experimental.

www.euphoriafest.com

5/12/18 (9:00 pm)

Jerry Jeff Walker

Gruene Hall, 1281 Gruene Rd, New Braunfels, TX; Country Music and Dancing